

OLD MISSION SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO

Founded November 1, 1776

Hanging from sycamore beams since this campanario, or bell wall, was built in 1813, these bells serve both useful and decorative purposes. Two of them were first sounded at the site of the Mission in 1775 and have survived burial and a disastrous earthquake. The beautiful red-topped plants are poinsettias.

P13864

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

CW 2341

"Plastichrome"® by Colorpicture, Boston 15, Mass., U.S.A.
DISTRIBUTED BY "Golden West"® 2583 MAINE AVE., L.B. 6, CALIF.

ADDRESS ONLY